13. [ ] LIAISON Mike Van Dusen, on the staff of the Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East, House International Relations Committee, called to defer to us on the question as to whether representatives from State can sit in on the Director's briefing on AWACS scheduled for 21 July. He also understands our concern over extensive staff participation in the session and suggested the 19 Committee staffers previously suggested be pared down to five. It was agreed that we deal on these matters with Jack Brady, Chief of Staff of the Committee.

Alison Brenner, the Minority staffer on the Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East, later called to put in a pitch that she be one of the favored five as she and Ivo Spalatin, Staff Director of the Subcommittee on International Security and Scientific Affairs, had been the two staffers who have been following AWACS the closest.
